PRIVACY POLICY OF FOLLOW THIS

Follow This handles your personal data as carefully as possible.

Why do we process personal data?

We process personal data by collecting it, storing it, and making use of it; in other words, we process it. These processes help us achieve our ambition: mobilizing shareholders to compel major oil and gas companies to embrace the Paris Climate Agreement. To achieve this ambition, we need members and donations, and to this end we communicate with our supporters. By analyzing these communications, we can approach you in a more personalized way.

We process personal data only if we have a legal basis for doing so.

Follow This makes use of the following legal grounds:

- To carry out our agreements with you – for example, your donorship and/or membership.
- For the promotion of our legitimate interests – for example, to analyze memberships and donations over the years in order to better understand our members and donors.
- To comply with our legal obligations – for example, we must share certain donation data with the tax authority.
- Permission given by you – for example, to send emails for fundraising and other purposes. You can always withdraw this permission.

What data do we process and for what purpose?

We are only allowed to process personal data if we have a specific goal in doing so. This is an overview of the personal data that we process, and why we do that:

- Name, address, country, and email address: in order to be able to contact you – for example to inform you, to ask you for additional information, or to approach you with a donation request.
- Bank information, such as your IBAN. We use this information to execute direct debit authorizations and to determine whether a donation has come from you.
- Legal authorizations, in order to satisfy the legal retention period.
• Contacts with you and donations by you over the years, in order to personalize our interactions with you.
• Your responses to our surveys and email newsletters, such as clicks on certain messages. We look at these to improve our communications.
• Your preferences for channels of communication. We take this into account in order to approach you in the way that you prefer.
• Information about your use of our website, in order to improve it and to actively engage with you through other websites.
• If you do not provide all the information requested, we may not be able to contact you or you may not be able to become a donor.

How long do we store your data?

We often keep your data for a longer period of time. This allows us to analyze the origin of our income and adjust future activities accordingly. We do not keep your personal data longer than necessary for the purposes for which we collected it unless we are required by law to keep the data for a longer period.

If you no longer wish to receive our mail, we do keep your contact information so that we know not to contact you again.

Your right of inspection and other rights

You can request access to the data we hold about you at any time. You also have several other rights, such as the right to rectification and the right to removal of data. For an overview of all your rights, please visit the website of the Dutch Data Protection Authority: https://autoriteitpersoonsgegevens.nl/en

You can submit your request by email (info@follow-this.org). When making your request, please include your name, email address, and phone number. Include a copy of a valid identification document. We advise you to cover your photo and to make your BSN and place of birth illegible.

Please let us know if you are not satisfied with our handling of your personal data. We will do everything we can to resolve any issues. You can also file a complaint with the Dutch Data Protection Authority.

Do we share your data with others?

We share your data with others only if this contributes to the goals already mentioned. Such third parties may be companies that support us in carrying out our activities, such as companies that send out mailings for us or banks that handle your donation. Otherwise, we share your data with third parties only if that is required by law.

Handling your data securely

We ensure adequate security of the systems in which we store your data. We do our best to ensure that your data is only accessible by authorized persons.
All data that you enter on our website is transmitted via a secure connection.

Anonymous donations

Of course it is always possible to donate anonymously. Please mention this on your transfer so that we do not process your name and IBAN further in connection with that donation.

Changes to our privacy policy

We may make changes to this privacy policy at any time. The most recent change was made on March 31, 2021.
